

Ann Phillips

With more than 14 years of diverse business experience coupled with her knowledge, enthusiasm, and understanding of organizational dynamics, Ann Phillips creates powerful and positive changes in organizations.

Ms. Phillips is a compelling and sought-after motivational speaker and consultant. Competent, energetic, fun, and enthusiastic are words commonly used by audiences to describe her presentations. She weaves a myriad of entertaining, humorous, and inspiring anecdotes into her presentations on productivity improvement, customer service, and organizational change.

Ann is a consulting partner with The Ken Blanchard Companies®, where she is experienced in presenting Situational Leadership® II, Situational Self Leadership, Building High Performing Teams®, Raving Fans®, and Gung Ho!®

Before joining The Ken Blanchard Companies, Ann's career focus was in nonprofit organization development, where she gained experience not only in the United States but also in Ghana and Kenya as a consultant to management and program staff.

Ann received her bachelor's degree in recreation administration from the University of the Pacific and a master's degree in management with an emphasis in organizational change and transformation from John F. Kennedy University.
