

Marta Brooks

Marta Brooks, a Senior Consulting Associate and Executive Coach at The Ken Blanchard Companies®, energizes audiences with her leadership presence and engaging style. She connects to people with her insight and practical guidance. Marta developed her business acumen in both worlds of corporate management and personal entrepreneurship. She uses her hands-on business expertise to inspire leadership effectiveness and promote individual accountability for desired results.

Marta is a speaker, trainer, consultant, author and coach. She is certified in multiple Blanchard programs including Situational Leadership® II, Situational Self Leadership, Situational Frontline Leadership, Situational Team Leadership, Coaching Essentials and Leading People through Change.

Marta has distinguished herself by being responsible for Management and Organizational Development for LensCrafters Worldwide for 10 years.

Marta lives in Louisville, KY with her husband Tim. Marta studied business and psychology at the University of Louisville and Bellarmine University.

Marta has published Your Leadership Legacy coauthored with Julie Stark and Sarah Caverhill.

Clients

Air Products	Kaiser Permanente
Amgen	KPMG
Babcock & Wilcox	LensCrafters
BCBS	Merck
Chipotle	Nike
Deloitte & Touche	Nissan
Disney University	PetSmart
Dow Chemical	Proctor & Gamble
Genetech	Skanska
Hollister	Taylor Corporation
Intel	The Hartford
Johnson & Johnson	Toyota
Johnson Controls	Wells Fargo

Testimonials

Marta has a gift for inspiring people. She has made an enduring impact in the way we lead ourselves and others.

—Robert Sturm, Babcock & Wilcox

Marta is very engaging. She relates to our world and how we can make a difference in ourselves and our cast members.

—Disney University, Your Leadership Legacy Conference.

Marta listens with an open heart and mind, and the grounded experience and understanding of executive management challenges and opportunities.

—Kristi Conlon, Intel Leadership Management and Development